

CREATURE QUESTS

Tom and his sister Flossie live in London, England and are Secret Agent Globetrotters. At night, they travel the world through the Globe Gateway helping the mysterious 'M' respond to creature-in-distress alerts and saving animals in mortal danger.

In the first of their adventures, 'M' invites them to join his feline quest and save a poisoned jaguar in Belize, but they only have 10 hours to do it. Their action-packed travels take them to the home of the ancient Mayan people, as well as a crazy chocoholic, intent on bringing down the mighty Jaguar Sun King and creating a new brand of chocolate. Can they save the jaguar and get back home through the Globe Gateway in time?
